SUMMARY

Hands-on senior marketing and communications leader with over a decade driving strategy and execution for professional trade and membership associations. Owns brand voice and executive-level messaging, leads multi-channel and digital campaigns with a strong analytics and conversion focus, and coaches small teams to ship polished, on-brand work. Skilled at translating programs, events, and education offerings into clear value propositions that grow engagement, participation, and revenue, with a build-it-in-house approach that keeps a lean team efficient.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Sacramento Association of REALTORS®, Sacramento, CA

March 2024 – Present

Director of Marketing & Communications

Lead integrated marketing and communications for a 7,000-member professional trade association, aligning strategy with member engagement, program growth, and revenue priorities.

- Own the association's brand voice and serve as quality gatekeeper for external communications, writing, editing, and reviewing executive-level messaging, press releases, and member content for clarity, tone, and accuracy.
- Plan and execute multi-channel campaigns across web, email, social, and paid media, using Google Analytics and performance data to lift engagement and conversion; grew Instagram reach 57%, Facebook 30%, and engagement 42% within three months.
- Rebuilt and manage the association website in WordPress, improving usability, content, and conversion, and instrumenting analytics to measure and report on digital performance.
- Translate programs, events, and education offerings into clear value propositions for members and prospects, supporting participation and revenue across a 500+ attendee expo, fundraisers, and continuing-education events.
- Coach staff and manage outside vendors, building the marketing function in-house after moving off an outside agency, which cut outside spend while improving output and consistency.

eXp Realty, Remote

Directed marketing, communications, and digital performance for a global real estate brokerage, advancing from Digital Marketing Manager to Senior Manager within two years.

Senior Manager, Digital Marketing

April 2023 – March 2024

- Led and coached a cross-functional team across 30+ web environments and 23 locations, managing priorities and timelines to an 84% on-time completion rate.
- Directed brand voice and conversion strategy and built event and behavior tracking with Google Tag Manager, Hotjar, and Google Analytics to optimize conversion paths, growing lead capture 40%.
- Reduced outside development costs by 60% by bringing work in-house, and built executive dashboards and reporting for C-level leadership.

Digital Marketing Manager

February 2022 – April 2023

- Strengthened brand positioning across digital platforms and developed internal communications playbooks to standardize messaging across departments.

Intero Showcase Properties, Vacaville, CA

January 2021 – February 2022
